

THE DAILY APPEAL.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 5, 1857.

The officers of the steamer City of Memphis have our thanks for late New Orleans papers.

SCHOOL VISITOR.—At a recent meeting of the Board, JESSE HORN, Esq., was elected visitor in place as Capt. RAYNER, resigned.

Chancery Court, of Mississippi.—Is now on a visit to this city, the Evening News intimates, with a view to become a resident here.

We are indebted to the kindness of our friend THOMAS CARSON, Architect, for latest New York and Cincinnati papers. He arrived on the Southward.

Vine.—The residence of J. H. JONES, corner of Main and Causey streets, has been elegantly fitted up from a pine, but by no means all of the neighborhood was ever seen.

Minneapolis and St. Paul.—The passenger cars on the Mississippi and Tennessee Railroad entered the town of Potosi on Thursday last, and will hereafter extend their trips regularly to that point.

The people of Louisville are now enjoying the luxury of fresh oysters "on the shell." Will our friend of the Twin Tides inform us how long we will have to wait for a "half" of those precious bivalves from his part of the world? How long, oh! ROAN?

LAFAYETTE'S BIRTHDAY.—GILBERT MONROE LAFAYETTE was born on the 6th of September, 1785. The centennial anniversary of his birth, however, will occur to-morrow (Sunday). It has been suggested that the clergy throughout the country prepare and preach as appropriate sermons so that day, and we think the idea a good one.

COL. JEFFERSON DAVIS will speak at Hernando to-day, on which occasion a basin dinner will be given by the neighbors and townsfolk. Persons who desire to hear the distinguished gentleman can leave on the cars for Clarksdale, or in time for the service, after spending most of the day with our pleasant De Soto neighbors.

Among the visitors, at present in the city, we notice the family faces of half a dozen or more of our Mississippi friends who reside at Jackson. We learn that they are on a prospecting tour, and we trust that the impression of those who may be with us to induce them to "pitch their tents" here in the thriving city.

The City Schools commence their session on Monday next, with every prospect of a large attendance of pupils and a successful term. The schools will be under the charge of experienced and educated teachers. Pupils will be admitted upon application at the Superintendent's office, south side of Court Square.

An impression seems to exist in the minds of some that we were misinformed in regard to our statements with reference to the charge against Dr. FRAZER. For the benefit of such, we would state that our knowledge of the affair was derived from the city police, and was the result of their inquiries in the case.

PANOLA COUNTY COURTS.—W. C. BARKER, of Corinth, Miss., has sent us to this office for inspection, a cotton stem having one hundred and forty-five bales and 1000 lbs. of cotton, looking healthy and promising. We are informed that it is the product of a portion of up-land. If the best of Mr. BARKER's land turns out as well, we will certainly have no cause of complaint.

This evening is the last opportunity our citizens will have of witnessing the trial of W. C. BARKER, of Corinth, Miss. We notice that he who has not seen it, really desires to pass an interesting evening, to aite-to-eight. The manager has been successful in giving satisfaction to all, and we hope on this occasion of his benefit, some evidence of their appreciation of his services will be manifested.

OUR AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—We see by the Nashville Gazette that of that city have had a meeting to make arrangements for furthering the interest of the Agricultural Fair to be held for the ensuing year, at and about the 1st of October. At this meeting, Mr. J. M. COOPER, of Memphis, will be appointed to represent the city and at Huntsville, Ala., on Monday next, the 7th inst. The election in this city will be held under the supervision of the following gentlemen: JAMES A. CARPENTER, W. B. MILLER and THOMAS FINNIE.

MEMPHIS AND CHARLESTON RAILROAD-ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.—The election of Directors of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, to be held for the ensuing year, will be held at their offices in this city and at Huntsville, Ala., on Monday next, the 7th inst. The election in this city will be held under the supervision of the following gentlemen: JAMES A. CARPENTER, W. B. MILLER and THOMAS FINNIE.
